

Profile of a Successful Student

Students who have a successful, satisfying experience learning online tend to share the following critical characteristics:

Self-motivation with a desire to learn independently

Good time management skills

Prefer asynchronous learning versus the traditional classroom

Works to complete assignments on or ahead of time

Possess adequate technical skills (comfortable working on a computer)

Wants flexible schedule to meet individual needs

Desire to accelerate courses/grades OR graduate early (9-12 grades)

Effective Communication

