

73, of Spring Hill, FL passed away peacefully at home surrounded by his loving family on November 26, 2016. He was born in Parkersburg, West Virginia, the son of Chester and Nina (Melrose) Morris. He was a US Marine and worked many jobs, including freightliner and warehouse supervisor for more than 20 years at Fontana Unified School District (FUSD) in California. He enjoyed hiking, camping, fishing and hunting.

Buford is survived by his wife of 19 years, Sue (Giudici) Morris; son, Paul, and his wife, Debbie Anderson, of Yucaipa, California; three daughters, Becky Brown, of Port Orchard, Washington, Julie, and her husband, Greg Clay, of Medina, Tennessee, Tressa, and her husband, Mike Hern of Milan, Tennessee, several grandchildren and great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his daughter, Kimberly Morris, his parents, his sister, Phyllis Niles, and his nephew, Eric Niles.