

■

Published: Friday, December 6, 2013 9:40 AM PST

Rose Frye passed away peacefully with her family at her side on Monday, Dec. 2 at her Fontana home.

Rose, a native of Middleburgh, NY, called Fontana home for more than 61 years.

She was an instructional assistant for the original Virginia Primrose Elementary in Fontana for 17 years.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Robert, who passed away in 1998.

Survivors include three daughters, Chris Camer of La Quinta, Dr. Patricia Avila, M.D. of Kailua, HI, and Deborah Westerhoff of La Quinta; one sister, Mary Brampton of Beaumont; two brothers, Frank Schmidt of Florida and Bobby Schmidt of Colorado; three grandchildren, Dr. Patrick Avila, M.D. of Boston, Raquel Avila-Bermond of Biarritz, France and Cristine Westerhoff of La Quinta, as well as many other loving family members and friends.

Visitation will be Thursday, Dec. 5 from 10 a.m. to noon, with funeral service immediately to follow, both at Ingold Funeral Chapel, 8277 Juniper Avenue, Fontana.

A private interment will be scheduled for a late date at Riverside National Cemetery.