Administrator Comments

William Wu, Assistant Superintendent of Human Resources, had no comments.

Robert P. Ratcliffe, Chief of School Police, noted that a non-profit organization had been established to accept donations for the Fontana Leadership Intervention Program (FLIP), and asked persons wishing to serve as volunteers on that oversight committee to contact him.

Alejandro Alvarez, Associate Superintendent of Business Services, commented that although the details were still unknown he was hoping for a vote on the state budget.

Oscar Dueñas, Associate Superintendent of Instructional Services, noted that the Local Education Authority (LEA) Task Force had been formed, invitations had been sent out for those meetings, and as much representation as possible was needed. The meetings are open for all interested persons to sit in on and observe.

Board Member Comments

Mrs. Binks congratulated the Advanced Placement scholars and parents, thanked public speakers for their comments, commented on the budget cuts to public education, and asked the Superintendent to look into the possibility of partnering with local automotive dealerships to provide vehicles to transport cheerleaders to athletic events.

Ms. Chavez commented on her personal experience as a high school student in comparing schools and noted she would work very hard to make improvements for Fontana High School. She then commented on testing by school psychologists for Spanish-speaking students and requested follow-up to a related concern, as well as more workshops for parents to help them understand the workings of schools, and for information on the number of substitute teachers currently assigned to Fontana High School.
